

ICSAA

Iowa Commission on the Status of African-Americans

Lunch and Listen

December 14, 2018

11:00 AM—1:00 PM

Carnegie-Stout Public Library
360 W. 11th St.
Dubuque, IA 52001

The Iowa Commission on the Status of African-Americans (ICSAA) is conducting regional public community discussions throughout Iowa to gather information on issues affecting Blacks in the state. ICSAA is a state agency that exists to address the needs and concerns of Iowa's Black citizens. Individuals and organizations with an interest in these issues are encouraged to present written or oral testimony at the public listening sessions. Testimony will influence the ICSAA 2019 Agenda, which includes proposals to the Governor and General Assembly as well as other constructive action.

All persons or organizations wishing to present information for consideration at a public sessions are welcome, as well as any community members who are interested in learning more about the ICSAA. Those wishing to discuss a particular issue should call or write for scheduling on the agenda or register 15 minutes before the start of the session. This will guarantee that time will be reserved for all individuals or organizations wishing to present to the commission. Refreshments will be served.

To make a request for time or for more information, contact:

Iowa Commission on the Status of African-Americans

Department of Human Rights

Lucas State Office Building

Des Moines IA 50319

Or call (515) 281-3274 or (800) 351-4659

ICSAA

Iowa Commission on the Status of African-Americans

Department of Human Rights
Lucas State Office Building
Des Moines, IA 50319